Prior to 2021-2021, ROBLOX game developers were responsible for any known instances of hacking that happened in ROBLOX. There were also older instances where hackers had not yet discovered the community, but eventually did so, and started making exploits on their games that were very popular (such as "Hacker Escape"). Hackers also used an exploit to gain access to admin privileges on a game called The War Factory, which had over 500,000 concurrent players at once. When this was discovered, the hacker was immediately taken down by ROBLOX's staff.

ROBLOX is a company characterized by its community-based culture. This is reflected in its games, which are generally hosted on the website (as opposed to the product), and as a result, are built by users for users. The developers at ROBLOX have stated that they are completely open to third party developmentâ€”the only restriction on what is considered acceptable and permissible is that all products must be compatible with ROBLOX's Terms of Service. Whether ROBLOX soft products will be accepted into the Steam platform is still unconfirmed.

On May 29, 2021, ROBLOX decided to stop giving out high-quality builder's cards to anyone who has one of these cards, making it no longer possible for them to build long games on ROBLOX. This was the first time that high quality builders clubs were ever taken away from people who had them. On July 15, 2021, ROBLOX re-enabled the old low-quality builder's club and added another high quality builders card which can be used by anyone without making their game longer than 30 days. This update helped in the new Club Builder's Club Builder's Club Update which gave people who had builder's cards prior the ability to make their ROBLOX games longer.

"Robloxian life" has actually changed how people view games now. People used to spend hours and hours in games without even noticing that time has passed because they were involved with the game's world. Suddenly, they realize their time is running out and that no one is helping them out for example.

If that never happens then the servers are going to crash and the game will die. If you take a look at the way ROBLOX's developers are trying to make even more money, you will see that they do not want to add any real value to their games. They want people to spend real money for fake money (robux) so they're going to make it so that it's impossible for someone who doesn't pay for robux to exist within their virtual world.

There are also people who scam other players by selling items with prices they can't get for items that aren't worth much at all when you try to sell them. I once had someone scam me because of that. They told me their account was hacked and that they could fix it for me if I give them one of my items. So I gave them one and they scammed me. Another problem is when people are posting comments and other players comment back at them about it.
