In February 2021, Roblox was in violation of Terms of Service that required them to have a minimum age requirement for players.[72] In December 2021, ROBLOX temporarily suspended monetizing accounts and purchases of game currency within their website after it was discovered that many users had been cheated out of money. It is known that they worked with third-party vendors to purchase a limited amount of Robux for specific accounts.[73]

They're clearly taking steps in this direction by creating special perks, abilities, etcetera for those who have purchased robux from them. They're also creating clothing items which are being sold for outrageous prices with the sole purpose of being able to differentiate those who pay from those who don't in their game. This is wrong. It's unethical and it should not be tolerated.

The robustness of the software has had a positive effect on its players, some of who have even used this tool to make a fortune. This is not surprising since thousands of other players do the same thing. The average Robux income for an average player is around $65 monthly but it can easily go up to over $100. The fresh Roblox developer out there might be able to create and sell their own apps or games. While making an app in Roblox is fairly easy, it might take longer than one would think before they're ready to monetize it.

ROBLOX has been accused of copyright infringement multiple times by numerous people, most notably after the company decided to include music of band Crystal Castles in their popular game The Longest Day.

In response to these criticism, the ROBLOX website says that "Roblox does not condone the use of unauthorized software programs in games.". On December 20, 2021, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

On March 18th, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they were working on a system that would allow them to detect bot accounts and confiscate accounts from them.[31] On April 25th, 2021, ROBLOX announced "Secure Trading" again as they would require players to use their respective Facebook page accounts for trading purposes. As of June 15th, 2021, ROBLOX will still allow customers from around the world to trade with other users without requiring Facebook. [32]

On December 14, 2021, ROBLOX announced that it had partnered with Warner Bros. to produce a game based on the upcoming film "Justice League" (which is scheduled for a 2021 release). The game will be based on Batman's sidekick Robin, and will come in two forms: one which is story-based and one which is puzzle-based. The game was released in Europe on November 28, 2021 and in North America on November 30, 2021.

ROBLOX has also been compared to popular game Minecraft. In many ways, they are similar; both games have been developed by one company (Tencent) and are usually sold on the same platform (Windows, OS X, iOS, Android). Another close similarity is that they both have their own in-game currency system. However, Minecraft has a different style of gameplay relating to platforming; while ROBLOX players build and destroy using building blocks, Minecraft players explore a world.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for lacking any kind of quality assurance for its games. There have been many issues with the quality of some games and many users have complained that their game descriptions are not accurate. The site is also frustratingly inconsistent in the manner it deals with things like this, often banning users who complain about bugs and glitches within their games but not actually banning anyone who commits an illegal act, such as copying someone else's game and selling it without permission.
