Roblox cannot afford to go down the path of Farmville. They need to remain an open source program for everyone, where people can come together as equals and play fun games without being forced to pay money to be able to continue having fun within their virtual world. People who think they can't afford to pay should just get used to not having an ROBLOX account because that's what's happening. People are being kicked off the server by player banning.

- The fact that there are so many different games to play, it's hard to keep up with all of them. There is such a variety of games which leads to me getting easily confused on what game I was previously playing and where everything was set up. That's why I am always working on the same game over and over again.

Game Guidelines: On March 23rd 2021, ROBLOX announced changes to its Terms of Service and Privacy Policy regarding the game guidelines for making games on the website. The company has added new restrictions that force creators to only make certain kinds of games.[80] To be more specific, Roblox has forbidden developers from making violent and offensive content such as school shootings or terrorism. Instead, players can only make games that are appropriate for kids.[81]

There are some games that can give you more Robux randomly. But the chances of a good game giving you much more than what you're supposed to receive are very slim because the online game developers save these gifts for popular games.

A game called "The Mad Murderer" has been criticized by Roblox users as being violent. The game allows players to kill other characters by using a knife or a gun. It was reported that German and French users discovered the game while they were in Las Vegas for a conference. In response, Roblox changed the coding of this game so that the users can only use the knife when playing the game, instead of using guns as well. Players who used guns on other players would be banned from Roblox. Roblox stated that they were "going to continue to refine the game".

Productivity Tools: ROBLOX has released many tools to players in the past. Some of them have been useful to players, while others prove to be more controversial. The most recent ones were their "Full Studios" which had many features and tools that allowed players to go into the game engine and change things remotely. However, many users claimed that this was a privacy issue due to the fact Roblox can track all changes, such as the movement of people through the game or make copies of other people's games.

Roblox has been criticized for letting users access mature content, such as nudity, on the platform. In March 2021, it was reported that there were multiple nude characters on Roblox. The game had a character that was wearing only underwear. The character also had private parts that could be exposed to other players. This resulted in a large number of complaints being submitted to the company and they responded by making the character wear pants. However, the character then became fully covered and was unable to be exposed in this manner anymore.

On July 27th, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they were going to be having an "open beta" of a new in-game currency system that would allow users to buy and sell virtual currency. This feature was added to the site in 2021, but this was the first time that it was open to everyone. This new system came with a "Queueing" system similar to YouTube's order form, which many game creators saw as useful in saving time from waiting for transactions manually. Users can still trade with each other if they wish to do so.[23]

On June 26th, 2021, ROBLOX CEO John Hanke made an announcement on Twitter that the company would be removing the ability to create avatars for users within games and requiring new avatars to be created instead. Once this update was implemented however, users were able to create new models based on existing ones and preserve them as a template which they could then upload into games alongside their original avatar. This update was to lower fraud within the site with copyright infringement and promoting copyright infringement by bypassing game mechanics by allowing users to create avatars of other users' games.[21]
